Mayoral will present an exceptional exhibition Master at metamorphosis of the artist in Barcelona. This show will include interesting rare paintings such as L'horta des Llaner from 1921, when Dalí was seventeen years old; he painted this work that represents his parents' home in Cadaqués, well-known as his most inspirational village.

As well as, a very interesting selection of six Fashion Design drawings that the artist did on 1965. Dalí reached an agreement with the Wisconsin clothing manufacturer Jack A. Winter to design a line of clothing that would include beach, and swimwear, sportswear, and night and homewear for Autumn 1965, and then to show his designs in a travelling exhibition. The models were displayed in Paris that same year, but none of them were ever mass-produced.
